

All Are Welcome at St. Luke

We extend a special welcome to those who are single, married, divorced, widowed, gay, confused, filthy rich, comfortable, or dirt poor.

We extend a special welcome to screaming babies and excited toddlers. We welcome you whether you can sing like Pavarotti or just growl quietly to yourself. You are welcome here if you're "just browsing," just woken up, or just got out of prison.

We don't care if you are more Christian than the Pope, or haven't been to church since Christmas ten years ago. We extend a special welcome to those who are over 60 but not grown up yet, and to teenagers who are growing up too fast.

We welcome soccer moms, football dads, starving artists, tree-huggers, latte-sippers, vegetarians, and junk food eaters. We welcome those who are in recovery or still addicted.

We welcome those who vote this way or that way. We welcome you if you're having problems, are down in the dumps, or don't like organized religion (truth is, we don't like it that much either!)

We welcome those who are inked, pierced, both or neither. We offer a special welcome to those who could use a prayer right now, had religion shoved down their throat as a kid, or those who are here because grandma made them come. We welcome seekers, Lutherans, doubters, Catholics, and all those in-between. We welcome YOU.
